

Line of Sight (feat. WYNNE & Mansionair)

ODESZA

I'm facing back to front
Over my shoulder at the sun
And it's an open door
End of my line of sight once more And I don't learn, no I don't learn
It'll all be fine this time
I don't learn, no I don't learn
'Cause you always seemed so kind
And I don't learn, no I don't learn
It'll all be fine this time
And I don't learn, no I don't learn And I already know, I already
And I already know
You know I could learn
You know I could learn
And I already know, I already
And I already know
You know I could learn
You know I could learn And I already
You know I could learn I'm feeling in and out
I turn full circle round and round
So will you help me down (help me down)
Come grab my hand for solid ground And I don't learn, no I don't learn
It'll all be fine this time
I don't learn, no I don't learn
'Cause you always seemed so kind
And I don't learn, no I don't learn
It'll all be fine this time
And I don't learn, no I don't learn And I already know, I already
And I already know
You know I could learn
You know I could learn
And I already know, I already
And I already know
You know I could learn
You know I could learn And I already
You know I could learn Help me out, don't let me down
I could learn from you, I could learn from you
Help me out, don't let me down
I could learn from you, I could learn from you
Help me out, don't let me down

I could learn from you, I could learn from you
