Boo Hoo

Treadmill Trackstar

If I was looking for you
Would you be easy to find?
Would I be looking all night?
And if I got lost
Would you go looking for me?
Or would you be alright on your own?
Oh, and in the light of day it feels right
Comfortable to the bone from head to toe
Come the evening when the shadows fall
Well, I call your name but it's not the same as having you here
If I was a second too late
Or a moment too soon
Or an hour too long
Tell me, baby, would you wait a bit longer?
I wonder if you would
Or would you be long gone?
Would be alone?
Would you be alone?
Oh, and in the light of day it feels right
Comfortable to the bone from head to toe
Come the evening when the shadows fall
Well, I call your name but it's not the same as having you here
As having you here
As knowing you're near
As feeling you there
As knowing you care
As whispering in your ear
As my hand through your hair
As knowing you're there
Oh, and in the light of day it feels right
Comfortable to the bone from head to toe
Come the evening when the shadows fall
Well, I call your name but it's not the same as having you here

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/