Superhumanoids

oh what a shame
I let you invade my brain again what did you see inside a simple place to hide away from you now you're trapped here looks like the jokes on you I've got the only key out I'm not giving it to you where are your friends now I'm the only one who can help you the saddest part of this is the way that we kiss it makes me feel right yeah, it makes me feel right I look inside your eyes to see where you hide but you never let me in no, you'll never let me in now I see that the joke is certainly on me I'm stuck outside the only place that I wanna be Oh what a sad reality
