

Book Of Days

Enya

One day, one night, one moment
My dreams could be tomorrow
One step, one fall, one falter
East or west,
Over earth or by ocean
One way to be my journey
This way could be my
Book of days No day, no night, no moment
Can hold me back from trying
I'll flag, I'll fall, I'll falter
I'll find my day maybe
Far and away
Far and away One day, one night, one moment
With a dream to be living
One step, one fall, one falter
And a new world that cross a wide ocean
This way became my journey
This day ends together
Far and away This day ends together
Far and away
Far and away.
