

Shatter Me With Hope

HIM

The girl who cried, cried love, love
Cried for love
You can be Cassandra
Underneath the sword of Damocles We'll tear this baby apart
Wise like Solomon Run, come, shatter me now
Shatter me with hope
Crawl, come, breathe me in
Bleed out sorrow Scream me a dream
Untouched by shadows
Baby, shatter me now
Shatter me now
Shatter me with hope She'll be the witness
To the repose
Push the needle in
To the of canticles of ecstasy Turn to page forty-three
And you'll know how I feel Run, come, shatter me now
Shatter me with hope
Crawl, come, breathe me in
Bleed out all sorrow Scream me a dream
Untouched by shadows
Baby, shatter me now
Shatter me now
Shatter me with hope Swear on your heart's grave I'm wrong
And love like your life's depending on it
'Cause it is
