Even the Waves

Chroma Key

Me an Judas lost at sea
Under electric twilight fading
I look at him he sees through me
40 days and we're still waitingI'm not tired but I think I'll lay back anyway
I'm not welcome but I think I'll stayMe and Jonas lost at sea
Deep inside a dream we're trailing
Heard him whisper wait for me
Sun goes down and we're still sailingI'm not nervous but I think I'll lay back anyway
I'm not helpless but I think I'll stay
And even the waves won't carry me awayKeep heading west that's the best
May be lost but I'm not crazy
Stay where you are not too far
Keep it up you're doing fine
Well, I thought I was fineMe and Joseph lost at sea
Under rain and slowly waking
He looks around and smiles at me
41 and we're still waitingI'm not tired but I think I'll lay back anyway
I'm not hopeless but I think I'll stay
And even the waves won't carry me away
