Lead The Crowd

Joe Brooks

Nobody should ever tell you what to do
Nobody should ever play you like a fool
Nobody should ever make you cut your hair
Nobody, nobody owns you
It's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
Don't ever let them get you down
'Cos it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the lad to lead the crowd
Lead the crowd, uh
Nobody should ever tell how how to sing along
Nobody is never always never wrong
Nobody should take the pink from what you wear
Nobody, nobody owns you
It's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
Don't ever let them get you down
'Cos it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the lad to lead the crowd
Lead the crowd, yeah

Ooh, Ooh
Ooh
Ooh, Ooh
Ooh
Somebody will always try to put you down
Somebody, yeah, will push your face into the ground
But you told me get up and stand on your two feet
'Cos nobody, nobody owns you
It's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
Don't ever let them get you down
'Cos it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the lad to lead the crowd
Cos it's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running

Don't ever let them get you down
'Cos it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the lad to lead the crowd
Lead the crowd
