

nothing personal (stripped)

TALA

[Verse]

I'd be lying if I said I'm not attracted
Not sure I want you outside this room for two
When I saw you first I thought I was distracted
Maybe you misread too much in my head[Pre-Chorus]
I don't wanna be found
Not when you are around to see that it's not the same
Name on my phone when you call
Baby it's clear to me that I don't feel nothing at all[Chorus]
Maybe this just isn't love
You're not the one I'm thinkin' of
When I hear good news I don't run to you (to you)

[Verse]

I heard it hurt to let go of the one you love
But this feeling I feel isn't deep enough
To be called anything other than a lack
Between reality and what you wish we had[Pre-Chorus]
I feel a void in my chest
As I realize that we've ended up here once again
I'm running out of excuses to give you
When you ask me how I feel but I know[Chorus]
Baby this just isn't love
My heart's still screaming 'not enough' (not enough)
Even when I know you'd give me your all (your all)
This definitely isn't love I'm not yours, I never was (never was)
Nothing personal, it's all physical

[Bridge]

I knew it from the start that first summer night
Wind blowing through my hair, the light in your eyes
I told you that this love just didn't feel right
But I was unclear I wasn't ready for what you had to give Infatuated, but the love, it ain't real
Don't wanna hurt you won't you please stop tryna keep me around[Chorus]
Baby this just isn't love
You're not the one I'm thinking of
When I hear good news, I don't run to you (to you)
This definitely isn't love
I'm not yours, I never was (never was)
Nothing personal, it's all physical[Outro]

It's complicated, boy, I'm all outta lies
To tell you when you call me every night
Don't wanna let you down but boy, this ain't right
Gotta walk away from you I'm tired of running, boy I won't play pretend
I'm not the one, so get me out of your head
I never wanted you to fall for me
Oh baby, I'm sorry
