Taboo To Love

Stevie Wonder

Are you telling me you feel
Like you have never felt
Ut oh, my heart
Don't you know those famous words
Be seen but not heard
Taboo to loveAre you telling me your eyes
Met hers to your surprise
But why, my heart?
How loud must you hear me say
Have fun but don't play
Taboo to loveWhere's your lantern or candlelight
So to guide you through hidden spaces
Though it's said truth unveils all lies
Feelings can't be left to roamSo you say you've lost your head
But you use your heart instead
Beware of love
This is not like you at all
Who vowed to never fall
Taboo to love, taboo to love
Taboo (background)
To love, taboo to love
Taboo (background)Where's your raincoat and over-boots
To protect you in stormy weather
Though it's said when you walk in truth
Love can bring you no harmSo you've made up in your mind
You'll leave your fears behind
So brave my heart
I guess your heart has made you see
Its better to be free
No taboo to loveI guess your heart has made you see
Its much better to be free
No taboo to love
No taboo to love
Taboo (background)
To love, no taboo to love
Taboo (background)
To love, no taboo to love
Taboo (background)
To love, no taboo to love

Taboo (background)
No taboo to love
