

Day 1

Prospect Reach

A million faces I understand
I do and I don't know just where I am Everything's different but nothing's changed
I spent a half of a century feeling so estranged
My skin is still young
My heart it works
My vision is straightened, and I'm seeing Earth
I'm turning my background into my foreground now
I plug my ears so I can hear the words
"All that you want
Is all that you'll find"
I that I want escapes my mind
Cuz all that I have, Is all that I need
Starting out with me Shout it out loud
Cuz This is the first day
I've wanted to in a while now
All of your love
could not be more simple and yet I find it's giving me all my life back somehow Everything's brighter with new mental light Perspective is hard to gain without the fight
The grass never looked so green
Cuz I've never seen this scene before
"All that you want
Is all that you'll find"
Where have you been all of this time
And all that I have
I swear I hold true
I'm so glad I have you Shout it out loud
Cuz This is the first day
I've wanted to in a while now
All of your love
could not be more simple
and yet I find it's giving me all my life back somehow
