

You've Got Your Troubles

Neil Diamond

I see that worried look upon your face
Well, you've got your troubles, I've got mine
She's found somebody else to take your place
You've got your troubles, I've got mine I too have lost my love today
And all of my dreams have flown away And so forgive me if I, I seem unkind
You've got your troubles, I've got mine
I'd help another time, another place
You've got your troubles, I've got mine She used to love me that I know
And it don't seem so long ago
That we were walking, that we were talking
The way that lovers do You need some sympathy, well, so do I, baby
And you've got your troubles, I've got mine I too have lost my love today
And all of my dreams have flown away You've got your troubles, baby, and I've got mine
(You've got your troubles, you've got your troubles)
You've got your troubles, baby, and I've got mine
(You've got your troubles, you've got your troubles)
