

No Reason

Sum 41

All of us believe that this is not up to you
The fact of the matter is that it's up to me
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
Let's go
How can we fake this anymore
Turn our backs away and choose to just ignore
Some say it's ignorance, it makes me feel some innocence
It takes away a part of me but I won't let go
Tell me why can't you see it's not the way
When we all fall down it will be too late
Why is there no reason we can't change
When we all fall down who will take the blame, what will it take
If nothing could ever be this real
A life unsatisfied that I could never feel
This future's not so bright, some can't make the sacrifice
It's much more than just black and white and I won't follow
Tell me why can't you see it's not the way
When we all fall down it will be too late
Why is there no reason we can't change
When we all fall down who will take the blame, what will it take
Times like these I've come to see how Everything but time is running out
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
All of us believe in what we need
What we have's what we don't see
Tell me why can't you see it's not the way
When we all fall down it will be too late
Why is there no reason we can't change
When we all fall down who will take the blame, what will it take
Tell me why can't you see it's not the way
(So how long has this gone on, I don't see this ending)
When we all fall down it will be too late
(It's too late we can't change what has now begun)
Why is there no reason we can't change
(We act like it's not right, why are we pretending)
When we all fall down who will take the blame, what will it take (We've been wrong for so long, we've known this all along)
