Mind Of Stones

Blue Felix

too hard to look around caught up in comin' down you speak, I understand your wish is my commandthe light of day, the dark of night my favorite parasite do you feel my pheromones?
let the time turn your mind to stoneheavy hangs the head the last night wore the crown you're devious you outta know the early morning bloodwhen shadows are your only friends and candles burn from the bitter ends you feel you're getting close my cold steel retrieves your ghost this time you cheated death free your mind, but hold your breath my dear, you're not alone
let the time turn your mind to stoneheavy hangs the head
the early morning bloodnow look at what you did you blew your chance now what a mess to think you tried so hard yeah to think you tried your best a dirty trick
you selfish fool advantage of surprise attack how I'd love to fill your throat and watch you choke on broken glass such fun while it lasts you cannot change the past how dare you live forever?
I see right through your mask! you're lucky, we're nothing you wanted me to fall now you cannot see me Let me outta the door!look who's laughing now devious last night, last night wore the crown look who's laughing now!
