

The Appeal & the Mindsweep II

Enter Shikari

I am a mindsweeper, focus on me
I will read your mind It goes on and on... Through volatile territory
Through the plains of adversity and the ravines of neurosis
Through the veins of gods and the valley of death But remember you are not alone
And we dance like knights
Here come the cavalry
The same blood gushes through my veins
Feel it surge Sweep through get streams
Down axons
And across synapses Mutato nomine, de te fabula narratur
