Frustration

FrustrationI have life, ordinary wife

I have a car, a favorite bar

I have job, a moderate wage

I get the pains that come with age I am so ordinary I have child, she goes wild

I have home, a mortgage of my own

I have hobby but it's nothing very special

I do the garden, I watch girls I, I'm so ordinary I have life, I have cage

I'm going bald, I want to tell the world

I've done nothing, I've achieved nothing

I work for a firm but I want to burn it down, downI am so ordinary

I am so ordinaryI was born, one day I'll die

There was something in between, I, I don't know what or why

I'm a man, I want to break a rule

I am a no, no, no, no, no, no, nobody, everybody's fool
I am so ordinary
Frustration

Frustration

Frustration

Frustration I'm so tired of endless art love stories

I'm beginning to not give a damn

I wish I could reach right out for the untouchable

Film starring Bruce, John Wayne, Elvis Presley Experiment with cocaine, LSD and set a bad bad example

Live a little, run a harem, be a tiger

Meet Bo Derek and be her Tarzan

Reach, reach out out, live, live, live, die, die, die, I, I, I, I wanna die Frustration, oh

Frustration

Frustration

FrustrationI wanna die

I wanna die, die, die, die

Die, die, die

Frustration

I wanna die
