Oh Girl (Album Version)

Leo Sayer

Oh girl
Id be in trouble if you left me now
Cos I dont know where to look for love
I just dont know howOh girl
How I depend on you
To give me love when I need it
Right on time you would always be thereAll my friends call me a fool
They say to let the woman take care of you
So I, I try to be hip and think like the crowd
But not even the crowd will help me now, ohOh girl
Tell me what am I gonna do
Cos I know I got such a guilty face
Girl, I feel so out of place, oh, yeah, yeahAll my friends call me a fool
They say the woman should be taking care of you
So I, try to be hip and think like the crowd, yeah
Not even the crowd can help me now, oh, you knowOh girl
I guess Ill never know
I could save myself a lot of useless tears
Girl, Ive gotta get away from hereOh girl
Pain will double if you leave me now
Cos I dont know where to look for love
And I just dont know howOh, no, no
Dont know where to look
Dont know where to run
Dont know where to goOh girl
Im no good without you, no, no
