

You Don't Love Me Like You Used To

The Lone Bellow

You donâ€™t love me like you used to
Just a spirit haunting my bedroom
House Iâ€™ve built for you feels like a tomb
You donâ€™t love me like you used to

You waited at the bus stop, flowers in hand
A yellow tulip for each hour weâ€™ve spent
Apart for now, my broken heart, an empty hand
That always wanted just to hold you close
Iâ€™m buried in the of my cold
Along with all, the notes Iâ€™ve wrote
If I done thought youâ€™d read them

You donâ€™t love me like you used to
You donâ€™t hear me when Iâ€™m talking to you
Just an old book that just breeze on through
You donâ€™t love me like you used to

I come on and the day will set just right
And what you said gone fill my appetite
I know for sure, your kitchenâ€™s closing early every night
And day I wish that you would go away
And find another soul to suffocate
And I love you so
But you should know I canâ€™t go on this way
I canâ€™t go on this way, I canâ€™t go on this way
I canâ€™t go on this way, I canâ€™t go on this way

You donâ€™t love me like you used to
Just a spirit haunting my bedroom
House Iâ€™ve built for you feels like a tomb
You donâ€™t love me like you used to

You donâ€™t love me like you used to
You donâ€™t hear me when Iâ€™m talking to you
Just an old book that just breeze on through
You donâ€™t love me like you used to
You donâ€™t love me, you donâ€™t love me
You donâ€™t love me, like you used to.
