

Rise Today

Alter Bridge

The wind is blowing cold
Have we lost our way tonight?
Have we lost our hope to sorrow?Feels like we're all alone
Running further from whats right
And there are no more heroes to followSo what are we becoming?
Where did we go wrong?Yeah, oh yeah
I wanna rise today and change this world
Yeah, oh yeah
Oh, wont you rise today and change this world?The sun is beating down
Are we ever gonna change?
Can we stop the blood from running?Our time is running out
Hope we find a better way
Before we find were left with nothingFor every life that's taken
So much love is wastedYeah, oh yeah
I wanna rise today and change this world
Yeah, oh yeah
So wont you rise today and change this world?Only love can set it right
This world, if only peace would never dieIt seems to me that we've got each other wrong
Was the enemy just your brother all along?Yeah, oh yeah
I wanna rise today and change this world
Yeah, oh yeah
Oh, wont you rise today and change this world?Yeah, oh yeah
I wanna rise today and change this world
Yeah, oh yeah
I wanna rise today and change this world
