Forever & Always

Dylan Matthew

The clock ticks by again
They said you're gone but it has to be pretend
You swore you never leave
Now I'm here alone I've forgetten how to be
Why did you have to go, can you wait a little longer?
Left me way too young, now these tears are getting stronger
I will love you forever
Forever & always
Whether we are together
Or you're only in my dreams
If the only time I see you, is when I am asleep
I'll still love you forever
Even though you're not here with me
Im waiting to wake up from this nightmare
I can't imagine life without you here, oh no
What am I supposed to do with all these plans I made with you
But I will love you forever
Forever & always
Whether we are together
Or you're only in my dreams
If the only time I see you, is when I am asleep
I'll still love you forever
Even though you're not here with me
No, are you up above looking down on me
Can you hear me screaming to come back, please
All I really want is to hold you one last time
I will love you forever
Forever & always
Whether we are together
Or you're only in my dreams
And I will love you forever
And I will love you forever & always
If the only time I see you Is when I am asleep
I'll still love you forever
Even though you're not here with me
I don't know
Here with me, no no
And I will love you forever & always, no no
And I will love you.
