You Make It Look So Easy

Eric Church

I got a hard head, I get that from my dad
And I can overreact maybe just a tad
I put up walls to show the world I'm tough
When I don't get my way I get difficultBut when it comes to lovin' me
Baby you make it look so easyYou're my refuge from the road, a safe place to go
When I'm out here livin' on this ledge
And when I'm circlin' the drain you keep my crazy sane
And quiet all the voices in my headI'm probably wrong more than I say
And I'd point that out if you were that way
Yeah, I'm hard to love and ever harder to live with
And I know there's days when you just want to up and quitBut when it comes to lovin' me
Baby you make it look so easyYou're my compass when I'm lost, my anchor when I get tossed
And the right way when all I can do is wrong
Sometimes I drink till I fall down but your arms save me from the ground
And hold me till all the hurt is goneI got a hard head, I was born that way
And that makes me wrong more than I say
But I thank God you got a hard head too
I guess he must have known you'd need that to get us through'Cause when it comes to lovin' me
Baby you make it look so easy
Yeah, baby you make it look so easy
