

Nightmares

Chameleon Circuit

Hey old man
Rest your head
You're breaking down inside
Armour's cracked, set to collapse
Damn you, don't you cry
I've ended lives
And ended worlds
I guess I've done it all
Fire and ice
And rage inside
How long until I fall? Somewhere all my darkest fears
Are gathering
It's not enough to
Save the day
I can't escape my nightmares Dreams have shown me
Who I am
A danger to myself
Trickster feared
Far from revered,
So I must fear as well
Words and laughter's
Wearing thin,
Breaking this disguise
Where do (the) Angels
Fear to tread?
How can I think to hide? Somewhere all my darkest fears
Are gathering
It's not enough to
Save the day
I can't escape my nightmares
