

Crossing The Frame

Coheed and Cambria

Home,
A silence put to glass that stutters words misleading here
Give me all you got with one shot sent to let me know
Here across the grass between the glass
I know
You're not the one I left to wait here helping I left in a sudden rush and never said why you
Couldn't know that I had no goodbyes
Oh but I wish that you were
I'm spying on you Newo
The way that you would have been if I
Stayed here at home
I'm givin' it up Newo
How important I would have been to you Press the steps I take to cross your door frame
You decide to answer when my fist swings hello I left in a sudden rush and never said why you
Couldn't know that I had no goodbyes
Oh but I wish that you were
I'm spying on you newo
The way that you would have been if I
Stayed here at home
I'm givin it up Newo
How important I would have been to you It's a casting quarters into wells that hold our dreams
You won't believe me
If I told you so Casting call
Dies into wells that hold our dreams
You won't believe me
I would if you told me so Oh oh oh oh
Oh but I wish that you were
I'm spying on you Newo
The way that you would have been if I
Stayed here at home
I'm givin it up Newo
How important I would have been to you

Songwriters

STEVEY, TRAVIS / SANCHEZ, CLAUDIO / TODD, MICHAEL / EPPARD, JOSHUA Published by Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>