Antighost

And Iâ€™m drowning alone in this body of water
So I choose to breathe in salt
And my home is no longer where I am living
And I donâ€™t think you love me anymore

So Iâ€™m reaching for myself inside a bottle
And Iâ€™m searching for some friends in a few more
And I see you in black just like a funeral
And I donâ€™t think I love you anymore

Save some room if thereâ€™s light at the end of the tunnel
But step lightly if a train comes through
Iâ€™m surrounded by people who love me
But it doesnâ€™t include you
No it doesnâ€™t include you
Tell me does it include you?
