

I Am Available

Petra

I don't have much to offer you, I don't have much to give There's so much I may never be as long as I may live
And I may never be all I want to be although I'll always try
But if you choose me, to use me, there's just one reason why I am available, I am available, I will go when you
say go
I am available, I am available, I will stop when you say no
My whole life was incomplete, till I laid it at your feet
So use me as you will, I am available I'm not the most dependable, sometimes you can't rely There's no excuse, there is no defense, there's only one reply I am available, I am available, I will go when you
I am available, I am available, I will stop when you say no
My whole life was incomplete, till I laid it at your feet
So use me as you will, I am available I know that my ability is not your main concern
It's my availability and willingness to learn I am available, I am available, I will go when you say go
I am available, I am available, I will stop when you say no
My whole life was incomplete till I laid it at your feet
So use me as you will, I am available
So use me as you will, I am available Available, I am, I am
