Hopeless

Screaming Females

Don't count on me again
I'll obsess on our encounter
I want us to be friends
I'm not hopeless, helpless, or begging you to stay
It's just turning out that wayI've mapped out your lies and you aren't good for me
But I'll follow all your orders and you can't have all of me
While I sit back and think of how I used to be
There ain't nothing left to do but dream
What if all these fantasies come rushing in at night?
But it's just too far the ancients to allow
And I'm trapped at home just waiting for you to call
I know it's over nowDon't count on me again
I'll obsess on our encounter
I want us to be friends
I'm not hopeless, helpless, or begging you to stay
It's just turning out that way
