

Forgive Me, Karma

Royal Thunder

it wont be easy when i leave but its better than lingering here with you theres a hand on my back that guides me on
    its bigger
    and brighter
and its faster than meim in it
    i did this
    the moment
    im in it
and im not gonna break it off of me you walk with fire
    i heard you were a liar
but i dont wanna break it off of me no younger
    im getting
    i keep on forgetting
still i dont wanna break it off of me i walk with fire
    ill show you whos a liar but im not gonna break it off of mewhats it gonna matter if you have your way with the world i dont wanna be there when the fire dies whats it gonna matter if you have your way with the world god, im gonna miss himthings will be better when im free ive never been good enough for you theres a hand on my back that guides me on
    its bigger
    and brighter
    and its faster
    than me
    i dont wanna leave you all alone but i cant keep fighting with these two worlds and the hand on my back just pushed me down if i stay
    if i go
why am i still hereits bigger brighter
    and its faster
    than me...
