

Wrong 4 Luvin' U

Luke Christopher

[Hook]

Is it the way you say my name girl?

Am I wrong for lovin' you?

Is it the way you play your games girl?

You babe[Verse 1]

Lost in your eyes, I know your mind love someone else

And I feel my body melt but I still can't help myself, girl

It's no surprise you say you want me I can tell

You tryna keep me in your space

I don't know where I gotta stand

And even when the good girls come I don't know how to hold them

But when I kick it with you it's a movie and a poster

I don't know if I'm searching for all of the wrong thing

But I'm up against the edge, yeah

If you push me now I'm dead

[Hook]

Is it the way you say my name girl?

Am I wrong for lovin' you? (You babe, you babe)

Is it the way you play your games, girl?

Am I wrong for lovin' you? For loving you (You babe, you babe)

You babe[Verse 2]

We started going in that direction

Then you said you only want a bestfriend

Then you steady wanting my attention

Why you leave me hangin' like a necklace?

Baby you can try to treat me like a possession

Never lie, I just answer all the question

I get close to you then I get invested

Then I get protective, then I get defensive

Give me something real I can touch on

Lemme put this love on

I won't let you be another girl I was stuck on

Still, must be a sucka for you

For the way that you move and the things that you do[Hook]

Is it the way you say my name girl? (Say my name)

Am I wrong for lovin' you? (You babe, you babe)

Is it the way you play your games, girl? (Your games girl)

Am I wrong for lovin' you? For loving you (You babe, you babe)

You babe
