

Sellout

Living Sacrifice

Sellout, sellout, selfish lust gone
No time for games, free will reigns
I will to surrender, I will take my cross
My flesh subjected, my spirit rise
Focus, focus straightway on my God
No more needless cares of temporal
No more deception, no subtle thoughts
Focus straightway on eternal
My spirit cries out to You, God
To live is Christ, to die, gain
I will not build again
Things which I've destroyed
I will not make myself transgressor
Hay and stubble will burn away
Only God and only God remains
My spirit cries out to You, God
To live is Christ, to die, gain, gain, gain
