The Lemonade Stand

Podunk

Won't you have a glass of my lemonade?
See I just made a fresh batch today
Let's sit in the shade...and a
Whatcha doin' old man today
He said boy, I'm just running away
Listen little boy
Don't you make the same mistakes I did
You just try and hold on to being a kid
Then he said thanks for listening
And the boy he just smiled,
Shook his head and said
If you ever want to talk again
Just come on down to the lemonade standWon't you have a glass of my lemonade?
You see I'll pour you a fresh glass today
Let's sit in the shade and...
Whatcha doin' miss ma'am today?
She said boy, I'm just running the hell away
Little listen boy don't you
Let nobody walk all over you
Just make sure you
Do the things that you want to do
Then she said thanks for listening
And the boy he just smiled,
Shook her hand, and said
If you ever want to talk again
Just come on down to the lemonade standWon't you have a glass of my lemonade?
See I'll pour you a fresh glass today
