Rising from Anarchy

Tony Caesar & Robin Loxley

See, through that fire released
That kind of power to ease
A way of you until you give into the spend and release

I see that spike in my passion
The acting league in the challenge
To find the balance within your hustle that you cannot manage
Lifeâ€™s cold, the failureâ€™s more bitter once youâ€™re consoled
Any quicker, without having a vision is whatâ€™s missing on this issue
Listen, cuz lifeâ€™s a play have to hustle for the riches itâ€™s a game
No oneâ€™s gonna pay your way, so pave a way in pictures
Iâ€™m here for the action, a non-submissionable great Shattered limits and glass ceilings to carry chance, Iâ€™m not nearly

(Chorus)
Rising from anarchy
What does the future hold?
Letâ€™s rise up, get ready to fight you now-goldâ€™s
I see the strength of the struggle thatâ€™s in your eyes
I see the power in us because I fired, so
(Repeat)

So I sink my teeth in Iâ€™m ready for action, Iâ€™m suited up
Superheroâ€™s here with a pen to be sure this ainâ€™t a bluff
Planning is the sister of chance, results the further a success
Combine my lie with all of them to come out with my vest
This is the new world, harm they give a new mind
Capture your destiny, donâ€™t let it go and you should be fine
Itâ€™s never the minimum-maximum potential thatâ€™s used
Serious and fast is how we work, we prepared so be kind

(Chorus)

The focus, status, and control, I shoulda seen the way they came
Made of answers of arisen, my system of trust changed
Taking lashes from the masses who are for the family
Mad as critics in this world so that I store my sanity
While Iâ€™m different, the noise on this mission plus running through My feint is voiceless execution, so what are your tools?
Cuz I believe in you, even you when weâ€™re equally leaderless

Get accused of achievable eliminate who was see-through
I see the light, welcome to this new world!

(Chorus)
