

Almost a Lover

Kylie Minogue

On Valentine's I think of you
It's just a poor excuse
You suffer me in my mind
Every single day, it's no use It seems like cool sexy stares
But nothin's been ever said
Just keeps goin' 'round my head I think I'm waiting for you
I think I'm waiting for you You're more than a friend and almost a lover
It feels so good, I can't help but wonder
I keep thinking, ooo when'll you discover
We've got the flame, I want the fire A-acting cool and casual
Check in 6pm to say hey, every day
We're edging closer to broken rules
And getting carried away I imagine that you've heard
Every hidden silent word
And we'd take it that bit further
(Take it that bit further) I think, I'm waiting for you
I think I'm waiting for you You're more than a friend and almost a lover
It feels so good I can't help but wonder
I keep thinking, ooo
(When you'll)
Discover, we've got the flame, I want the fire It's getting closer to now or never (Getting closer)
It's only us and it's clear
(Ooh oh oh)
I can feel it when we're together Ooh you're more than a friend and almost a lover
It feels so good I can't help but wonder
I keep thinking, ooo
(When'll you)
Discover Mmm
We've got the flame
We've got the flame
We've got the flame
I want the fire, I want the fire It feels so good I can't help but wonder
I keep thinking ooo
(When'll you)
Discover We've got the flame, I want the fire
I want the fire, I want the fire
I want the fire Wonder, I want the fire
I want the fire

Discover, I want the fire Yeah-eah, oh oo
Yeah-eah, oh oo
Yeah-eah, We've got the flame
I want the fire
