

Keep Coming Back

Haley Reinhart

What do you want (what do you want)
What did you come here for
Thought it was done (thought it was done)
But here you coming back knocking on my door

Oh, what happens, happens, yeah
It happened, happened, it's history (it's history, yeah)
Oh, what happens, happens
Yeah it happened, happened, no mystery (no mystery, yeah)

So why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back
Thought your bags were already packed, yeah
Why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back

How many times (how many times)
Are we gonna go over this
It's like a hammer in my head (my head)
You're coming down on me like a ton of bricks

Oh, what's done, is done, it's been too long
It's ancient history (ancient history)
Yeah, what's done, is done, we can't go on
It ain't no mystery (mystery)

So why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back
Thought your bags were already packed
Why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back
Can't go forwards again that fast
Why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back

Don't have a home to go to
Don't you have another soul to hold you
Am I the only one who really knows you

So why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back
Thought your bags were already packed, yeah
Why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back
Can't move forwards again that fast
Why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back
Take your train down another drive

Why do you keep coming, why do you keep coming back

Mmm, woo hoo
