

Down South

Lady Antebellum

I was born, I was blessed
Right place, right time, I guess
Ain't no good reason why I left
Except to run and roam
Would you take me back and take me in
Let me be your child again?
Kiss my cheek, forgive my sins
And let me call you home? Oh, I may stay here for awhile
If I'm gonna fly, gonna fly down south
If I'm gonna drive, I'm gonna find a small town
South is where my momma lives
Where my lil piece of heaven is
If I'm gonna dream, I'm gonna dream your face
I'm gonna go, I'm gonna go to that place
And figure out what I lost and found down south
Religion and me don't always agree
But I sure love my maker
Sounds just like a gospel song
When I sing my lil prayer
Got rocks in my shoes, holes in my soul
I'm covered in dirt from head to toe
From walking along this winding road
That brought me back to here
Oh, I may stay here for awhile
If I'm gonna fly, gonna fly down south
If I'm gonna drive, I'm gonna find a small town
South is where my momma lives
Where my lil piece of heaven is
If I'm gonna dream, I'm gonna dream your face
I'm gonna go, I'm gonna go to that place
And figure out what I lost and found down south
Ooooooh oh oh oh, nananana
Ooooooh oh oh oh, nananana
Oh, I may stay here for awhile
If I'm gonna fly, gonna fly down south
If I'm gonna drive, I'm gonna find a small town
South is where my momma lives
Where my lil piece of heaven is
If I'm gonna dream, I'm gonna dream your face
I'm gonna go, I'm gonna go to that place
And figure out what I lost and found down south
Down south
Ooooooh oh oh oh, nananana
Ooooooh oh oh oh, nananana
Down south, born and raised
Down south where I learned to pray
Down south is where I'll stay
Down south
Down south, born and raised
Down south where I learned to pray
Down south is where I'll stay

Down south
