Kiss and Tell

Chandra Currelley

And you always try to warn me
Of the pretty girls out there
Now I finally learned my lesson
And she got a story to share
Don't kiss and tell
Don't kiss and tell
Listen son, my mama said, love don't cost a thing
Happiness is free for all just treat it like it's keen
And if you true love leaves one day make sure not to go wrong
The girl will laugh all the way as she waves so long
Don't kiss and tell
And you always try to warn me
Don't kiss and tell
Of the pretty girls out there
Don't kiss and tell
Now I finally learned my lesson
And she got a story to share
Some years later I found love when it seem to go my way
The girl is like a fairytale I didn't have to pay
So one day my sweetheart went then mama's words came true
Crying with a broken heart I was left all blue

Don't kiss and tell
And you always try to warn me
Don't kiss and tell
Of the pretty girls out there
Don't kiss and tell
Now I finally learned my lesson
And she got a story to share
Love is always, love is always for sale
'Cause someone's willing, someone's willing to pay
Don't kiss and tell
And you always try to warn me
Of the pretty girls out there
Now I finally learned my lesson
And she got a story to share
Don't kiss and tell
And you always try to warn me
Don't kiss and tell

Of the pretty girls out there
Don't kiss and tell
Now I finally learned my lesson
And she got a story to share

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/