

Victim of Love

Sweet Sensation

Victim

Victim

Victim of love Goodbye, baby say goodbye

'Cause you need me

A victim of love

A victim of love Victim No, I can't believe that it's true

After all we've been through

You say that there's somebody new Hey, what did you feel when we kissed

Tell me, was there something that I missed

Never thought it would end up like this So goodbye, baby say goodbye

I know it won't be easy

'Cause you need me

A victim of love

A victim of love

Victim of love They say all is fair in love

But sometimes enough is enough

Losing at love is so rough Hey, you said you were my friend

That true love is without an end

Tell me, do broken hearts ever mend This is the last time

I'll never hurt again Goodbye, baby say goodbye

I know it won't be easy

'Cause you need me

A victim of love

A victim of love Say goodbye bye boy

Goodbye, baby say goodbye

I know it won't be easy

'Cause you need me

A victim of love

A victim of love

Victim of love, stop I thought that you and I were different

The way you made me feel

In your arms, the sweet words you whisper

It seem to be so real But now it's time to turn and walk away

Sometimes dreams come true

But not for me my love

But maybe for you Better say goodbye

Say goodbye

I'll never hurt again

Whoa, a victim of love

I don't know what to do Goodbye, baby say goodbye
I know it won't be easy
'Cause you need me
I was a victim of love
And I'll never hurt again Goodbye
