

Plasticine

Placebo

Beauty lies inside the eye
Of another youthful dream
That doesn't sell it's soul for self esteem
That's not plasticine Beauty lies inside desire
And every wayward heart redeemed
That doesn't sell it's soul for self esteem
That's not plasticine Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are The only thing you can rely on
Is that you can't rely on anything
Don't go and sell your soul for self esteem
Don't be plasticine Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are
Don't forget to be the way you are The way you are
The way you are
The way you are
The way you are
