

Father Forgive Me

Chinchilla

For all of my sins and for all of my lies
I have to pay for my life the highest price
the chief of the dark side is always waiting still it's payback time for me - oh what a sin
To sell all my friends for my absurd money dreams to sell the best things I had for my stupid holy deals to undersign a contract with my own evil blood for gold and for silver not for God Father forgive me for the stupid things I've done
I'm on my way to see the light I'm always on the run
Father forgive me for the stupid things I've done
I'm on my way to see the light I'm always on the run
I was once recruited to stand in their lines to kill and steal for them for their mighty greedy lies now it's too late for me my time has yet come now I have to pay for the things that I've done
For all of my sins and for all of my lies
I have to pay for my life the highest price
The chief of the dark side is always waiting still
it's payback time for me - oh what a sin
So now I'm standing here, it's my judgement day so believe it's not my fault they ruled and I recalled so I'm awake all day under the dark side of sun cause now my soul is burning in the purgatory.
