

The Goddess

Alesana

[Verse 1]

My breath is slowly catching up to my mind after the crash

Inhale, exhale

Now open your eyes, see the wonder

I'm telling you its unbelievable[Pre-Chorus]

Did I lose myself? Am I still alive?

Something isn't right

Am I just asleep or is this really happening to me?

Tell myself I'm fine

Get up on your feet, get up on your feet

Answer me now![Chorus]

I never wanna leave because you feel like ecstasy

A seduction becoming a part of me

Damn you! Temptation, you've got a hold on me

Stand up, walk away, don't fall into the trap[Verse 2]

Illusion is best when you don't try to fight back

Give in to the pleasure, skin on skin

I will take you places you've not been

Elation is nothing but a myth unless you give in[Pre-Chorus][Chorus]I don't worry cause you are ecstasy..[Bridge]

We choose the foolish of the world to astonish the wise

The weak to embarrass the strong

Nothing is impossible, we must hope for everything

You don't have to understand things for them to be

You just have to believe in the unbelievable...My shadow hides in a place where the sun screams

Come back, my tears

Please just tell me what you are!I won't let you go (Never letting go)(x3)

Why can't I feel?[Outro]

I don't wanna leave because you are ecstasy

I never wanna leave because you feel like ecstasy

A seduction becoming a part of me

Damn you! Temptation, you've got a hold on me

Stand up, walk away, don't fall into the trapI don't wanna leave because you are ecstasy
