

Empathy for Leviathan

Oceano

I am disgusted at the sight of your breed..
I am the ocean, stained of your existence..

I am leviathan, the great demolisher, conducting from beneath
(conducting from beneath)

I shall submit your futile species through infinite tortures of the deep,
Abandoning you emaciated amongst darknest
It pleases me to witness your macerated corpse endure torment at these depths.... breakdown

Until this moment did you not expect any repercussion
You're as guilty as all the rest
There's no god to pray to for deliverance,

At these depths he does not exist
(he does not exist)
He does not exist „so believe in me
BELIEVE IN ME !!!!!!!!!!!
