

Away

Tribal Seeds

I heart aches for you girl
And I love is so true girl
Though you seem to think it's a game
While my mind is going insane
Said I feel like a child
Why don't you try me for a while
Cuz this vibrant rhythm in my heart works for love, love

You're always running away
You're always pushing away
Here I am, you don't know
That I heart burns in pain

I don't think your heart aches for me girl
And you always deceive girl
I've got to quit your games
To free myself from this mental slavery
I'd like to know what's on your mind
And why we can't just spend some time
Cuz this vibrant rhythm in my head works for love, love

So do I want to be your fool (no woman woman)
Do I want to be your tool (no woman woman)
Just cuz I heart aches for you
The important things they don't teach in school
So give me your love
Your sweet and affectionate love
I mon not gonna seek your lust
I swear it I just want your love
Cuz this vibrant rhythm in my chest beats for love

You're always running away
You're always pushing away
Well I never know why you have to run girl
Said I never know why you have to run
Cuz this vibrant rhythm in my heart works for love, love
For you, for you
Only for you, sad but true
