

I'm Sorry for Me

Molly Jenson

And I would take it back
But I like you having reason to move on
I don't feel a thing here, I'd wish this on you
I can't feel a thing here, I'd trade places with you I'm sorry for this will of mine that isn't bending your way
I'm sorry I can't recognize the reasons I should stay
So I'm sorry for the days that have gone by without me there
But I'm barely here, I'm sorry for me And I would take it back
But I like you having reason to move on
I don't feel a thing here, I'd wish this on you
I can't feel a thing here, I'd trade places with you I don't know where you go from here
What you thought you hear me say
But I hope your on your way
