

It's Been Hurting All the Way With You, Joanna

Moneybrother

CÂ'mon in, I got second thoughts
This evening, is just made for us
 Lights are low
 TensionÂ's gone
 I think itÂ's time
 We just get it on

CÂ'mon in, I got second thoughts
Tired of whining, I know it will work for us

ItÂ's been hurting all the way with you Joanna
WeÂ've been through all this before. Jo, I canÂ't take this no more
 ItÂ's been hurting all the way with you Joanna
WeÂ've been arguing and were stuck. Now were stranded out of luck
 I know that weÂ're supposed to have all these problems, right?
 But tell me what is the point in sorting them out tonight?

I donÂ't want it this way, and neither do you
 No more talk tonight, we donÂ't need it
 CanÂ't you see it really hurts

Things donÂ't change but baby I have
 CÂ'mon baby now letÂ's fuck
Maybe I just ainÂ't the one and baby, yes you should get going
 But tonight
 LetÂ's just get it on
