Super Furry Animals

There goes my life, ticking away
There goes my love, slipping awayLong to skeep, later
But alarms keep ringingTake another leaflet from the stand
Put a steak on some land
Bring another baby to the world
Clone a boy then a girlFamine and war
Babies and plague
Or angle-poise lamps
Limos and shades
Polar bears
Molting as the ice caps melt downTake another leaflet from the stand
Put a steak on some land
Bring another baby to the world
Clone a boy then a girlHand in hand we can break the commandTake another leaflet from the stand
Choose a color that's bland
Win the burger franchise for the world
Win the ranch get the girl
You say history will be your judge
But the jury's whipped, gagged and drugged
Take away the blinkers from your eyes
Humans split, polarized
