

Under Fiesta Stars

Gene Autry

We met by a stream one night in Mexico
The moment stood still under fiesta stars
I learned how to dream that night in Mexico
My heart felt a thrill under fiesta stars
The night spoke of splendour
The lanterns were low
I had to surrender
The thrill seemed to grow
The music was playing
We danced until dawn
My thoughts began straying
And then she was gone
Tonight there's a stream somewhere in Mexico
Where lanterns that glow blend with the soft guitars
I wish I could dream again of Mexico
And still feel the thrill under fiesta stars
Tonight there's a stream somewhere in Mexico
Where lanterns that glow blend with the soft guitars
I wish I could dream again in Mexico
And still feel the thrill under fiesta stars
