Giving It All Tonight

Roses Are Red

So tell me another story
Make it up as you go
It's alright, we can find a new place to hide
They'll never knowWe can wait here till morning
It would be safer then
It's alright, we can find a new place to start again
A new place to beginPut your arms around me now
So turn around
The cities burning to the groundSo we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
Until I find
But I'm giving it all tonight
Giving it all for you tonightI am only feeling failure
And every thing's on track
We're moving forward, never looking back
As long as this will lastPut your arms around me now
Don't turn around
The cities burning to the groundSo we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
In fear I might
But I'm giving it all tonight
Giving it all for you tonightSearching for our fate, however far away
I'm never coming home
And I need to escape and you need to be saved
We're in this all alone, we're in this all aloneSo we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
And still, I might
I'm giving it all tonightSo we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
And still, I might
Gotta give in it all tonightWe never got to hide
We're leaving our pasts behind
We're givin' it all for you tonight
