Jessy Lanza

You don't, you don't, you don'tTell me who's the love that follows along
Tell me, tell me who's the love
One you know you'll never needAnd tell me who's the one number for fun
You tell me all the time, I'll never needBaby I, baby I do
Just what you want me to
Baby I, baby I
It's true
That if you want me to
Baby I, baby I
I could never walk away
Baby, you know I never hesitate
Not for you and all the things you say
You know I like the way you look in your suitBaby I, baby I
It's true
That if you wanted to
Baby I, baby I
I do
Just what you want me to
Baby I, baby I
Everyone says you like it
Everyone says you like, but is it good enough for you?
Everyone says you like it
Everyone says you like, but is it good enough for you?Everyone says you like it
Everyone says you like it, baby
Everyone says you like it
Everyone says you like it, babyBut is it good enough for you?
(Just what you want me to)
But is it good enough for you?
(Do what you want me to)
