

The Love You Had

Vega 4

When the love you had has shut the door
And left you standing on the other side
The photographs are peeling off the walls
I'm in the headlights of a car crash site I'll be there, by your side
In the morning when you don't know how to breathe
I'll be there, by your side
To chase the dark clouds from the sky and let the sun shine through
The memories are painted over, washed away
And all I've got is what's left inside
I used to have a starring role, it faded out
Now I'm just a walk on part I'll be there, by your side
In the morning when you don't know how to breathe
I'll be there, by your side
To chase the dark clouds from the sky and let the sun shine through
