Deftones

I carve my name

Across your towns

When I'm set

Cut inside before

The trends begin

I spend my time perfecting Waves of contrast

Cutting out all

The same shit I've outgrown

I'm bringing it in style myself

You know it is with ease no sweatI see the crowns

And I forget the couture

Two at a time

I watch the kingdoms foldI'm bringing it in style myself

You know it is with ease no sweat

I'm breaking in with all my friends

So are you in?

Designed for you, designed by meBefore we get down

We must prepare the heart strings

To cut all the ties

And watch the trends beginI'm bringing it in style myself

You know it is with ease no sweat

I'm breaking in with all my friends

So are you in?

Designed special for you by me

Designed special for you by me

Designed special for you by meI carve my name

Across your towns

When I'm set

Cut inside before

The trends beginI'm bringing it in style myself

You know it is with ease no sweat

I'm breaking in with all my friends

Are you in? Are you in?

Are you in? Are you in?

Are you in? Designed special for you by me

Designed special for you by me

Designed special for you by me
