

If I Never Get To Love You

Gene Pitney

If I never get to love you it won't be that I haven't tried
Tried to kiss you 'till you felt love burning deep inside
If I never get to love you it's not because of my desire
Heaven knows I've always longed to set your heart on fire

What I wouldn't give to hold you tight
Never, never let you out of sight
Be the one you give your first kiss every morning
The last one you kiss goodnight

If I never get to love you it won't be that I didn't care
There is nothing that I want more or I need more
And my heart would surely break in two
If I never get to love you

What I wouldn't give to hold you tight
Never, never let you out of sight
Be the one you give your first kiss every morning
The last one you kiss goodnight

If I never get to love you it won't be that I didn't care
There is nothing that I want more or I need more
And my heart would surely break in two
If I never get to love you
If I never get to love you
If I never get to love you
