Road Less Traveled

Sick Of It All

Started on a Sunday Five dollar matinee that put us on our way the road less travelledAll the friends we have made and the family we have raised all thanks and credit due
The road less travelledWE did not choose this PASSION drove us to it
HARDCORE is our life now Born to walk on the road less travelled Blood sweat and not tears feast and famine through the years working hard keeps us here On the road less travelledGood or bad the choice is ours no one to put blame on take a gamble right or wrong on the road less travelled downLike those before us Breaking from the norm Never fitting in so we strike out on our own Fight against the tide go against the grain Living every moment feeling all the joy and all the pain
Live your life
Live your life
Live your life
Make a choice to stand apart
Live your life
Push on through and make a mark
Live your life
The only thing to fear is time
Live your life
Make the choice not to live but truley be aliveWE did not choose this PASSION drove us to it
HARDCORE is our life now
Born to walk on the road less travelledWe were right you will see you know our philosophy

Be a doctor PHD's all that shit is not for me
